Entre Commercial Realty completes the sale of 12,900 square feet in Hainesville IL

CHICAGO, IL (January 2010)— The Village of Hainesville purchased a 12,900 square foot facility located at 20 West North Street, Hainesville Illinois. This facility was previously occupied by the Boysen Well Drilling Company and was sold within 90 days of the listing date.

The property features 18' clear ceilings, multiple drive-in-doors and a 2 acre land site for vehicle parking and outside storage. The property also included a cellular tower onsite and this leasehold interest was included in the sale. The Village of Hainesville will utilize the building as expansion space for their current office and service facilities.

Nick Walby and Brian Bocci with Entre Commercial Realty LLC/TCN Worldwide represented the sellers and were the sole brokers involved in the transaction.
